

PrintExceptional Education Services:

Exceptional Education Services are provided to those students who meet the criterion for acceptance in to the program. Placement in any of these programs requires special testing and recommendation by a placement committee. A parent who would like to discuss the possibility of placement of a student in these areas should contact a guidance counselor.