

PrintInclement Weather:

When the Jefferson County School System makes a decision that we are going to be closed due to inclement weather, the decision for closing schools is usually made and given to the radio and television stations by 6:00 AM. The local news media is the best and fastest way to learn of these decisions. Please do not call the school.