

PrintReasonable Force:

Reasonable force is defined as any detaining or restraining action deemed necessary by administration to avoid the injury or further injury of students in an emergency situation which includes fights. It may also include physical touch in the case of having to move through a group to get to the emergency.