

PrintTelephones and Messages:

A student must have written permission from an administrator, teacher, or office personnel to use the telephone during the school day. Students may be permitted to use the office telephone only in cases of illness or absolute necessity as determined by school officials. Students will not be called to the telephone or out of class to talk with a parent or other person unless the situation is deemed as an emergency by the principal or assistant principal.