

PrintTitle IX for Students:

By law, no student may be denied participation in any school program because of his/her sex. The law applies to any school system that receives Federal money for any program. All Title IX complaints should be referred to the principal's office.